

End-Stage Renal Failure

The Importance and the Two Urgencies of Vascular Access

Guest Speaker:

Dr. Marc Webb, MD, FACS
Vascular Access Surgeon

Thursday, March 30, 2017
6 - 8 PM

Andiamo

38703 7 Mile Road
Livonia, MI 48152

Purpose

To provide an overview of vascular access complications for the hemodialysis patient

Objectives

- Describe the prevalence of vascular access complications in End Stage Renal Failure
- Discuss the importance of vascular access monitoring and management
- Identify when an intervention is indicated to treat vascular access complications
- Identify vascular access treatment goals

Target Audience

Physicians, Nurse Practitioners, Physician Assistance, Registered Nurses, Hemodialysis Technicians, Social Workers and Dieticians

1.0 CME to be provided

Registration is required.

Please RSVP to Ramsis or Nina at 248-355-1100.

Hosted by St. Mary Mercy Hospital's Center for Vascular Access

SMMH Accreditation and Designations Statements
St. Mary Mercy Livonia, an organization accredited by the Michigan State Medical Society (MSMS) accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.
This educational activity meets the criteria for a maximum of (1.0) AMA PRA Category 1 Credits(s)[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
Topics & speakers subject to change.